

Electronic Security Technician (EST):

Enterprise Systems Group is seeking an Electronic Security Technician to work out of our Brookfield, Wisconsin office.

Position Responsibilities:

The primary responsibilities for this position will be the implementation and ongoing support of access control, video surveillance and other physical security related products and systems. This position is also responsible for training end users and others on appropriate usage and support. This position does require to be on call on a rotational basis and travel throughout our service area.

Requirements:

- Associates degree, or equivalent experience in the physical security integration field
- Knowledge of data networks
- Ability to organize, perform tasks in a timely, accurate and detailed manner
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong customer service skills
- Knowledge of common office related software products is essential for documentation, such as: MS Word, MS Excel, Windows O/S, Outlook...etc
- Ability to work in a team environment

Apply:

For qualified applicants, please submit your resume and cover letter to rickr@esgexperience.com